THEY SAY THIS, AND THEY SAY THAT, and they say all sorts of things. We say Endowments, Annuities, Life Policies, and point with pride to our 55 years' record, and point to our standing in 38 states. We also view with intelligent horror the sad state of the uninsured.

The Scranton Times has the following to say of the Maude Hillman Co., which is booked to appear at the Castle Park theatre next week. "The Maude Hillman Co. opened a week's engagement at the Academy last night to one of the largest houses of the season. 'A Broken Heart' was the play presented and it is possessed of many beautiful and touching situations and has a plot of considerable depth. Miss Hillman, who is a very clever actress, has surrounded herself with a capable company. Several high class specialties were introduced, and judging from the amount of applause, the company made a decided hit. We predict for them crowded houses during the balance of week."

THE MONROE DOCTRINE.

The republic of Panama will soon be geographically described as a long, narrow body of water bounded on each side by the Monroe doctrine.—Exchange.

Every now and then some foreign statesman declares that the Monroe doctrine is absurd. Yet they never feel really disposed to treat it as a laughing matter.—Washington Star.

The Monroe doctrine is the defender of the new world against insidious or overt attempts at subjugation by the old world. It cannot die a natural death while the American people retain their political existence.—Chicago Tribune.

An Impudent Parrot.
